RE: Alexander Moore

To Whom It May Concern,

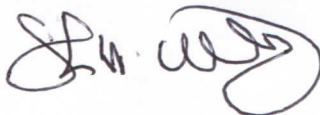

I have known Alexander (Sandy) Moore since meeting him in 2015 when we were both keynote speakers at the International REALTORS® Conference and Expo in Manilla, Philippines. This was an N.A.R sponsored event for the leadership of the Real Estate industry in the Asia Pacific region, and was attended by the leaders of approximately 15 country Associations as well as numerous industry groups including the 2017 N.A.R. president Bill Brown.

We have since worked together on business collaborations in both the US and Australian Real Estate markets, and I have found Sandy to have a comprehensive understanding of the real estate business. Sandy also offers a unique international acumen and a skill set steeped in a blend of developed and developing real estate markets.

In 2016 we worked together on a significant national US property management strategy that Sandy was directing and I found his knowledge and expertise in the functional working of the US industry to be exceptional. In my dealings with Sandy he has proven to be focused and determined with a strategic ability that is rare. He is also a pleasure to work with on a personal level and always forthright and straight to the point with a terrific sense of humor.

I welcome his decision to relocate to the US on a permanent basis and look forward to working with him again in the future. I would think his skills and his friendly Australian style will work well in an industry leadership role here in the US.

Sincerely,
Steve
